Serving the Locksmiths' of the Midwest Since 1956

General Meeting June 5th starting at 7:00 pm

For all of the people who sign up and have paid for the upcoming GSA approved Sargent & Greenleaf class it is this coming Saturday. If you have any hand tools please bring them, I was not informed about us having tools but to be on the safe side please bring some. NOTE to any person who has not paid and is wishing to take this class I am sorry to say it's all filled up. We were told we could only have 16 people. We could have had a second day but we need to have at least 10 more people signed up before we committed to second day.

I spoke to Susan from Rosslare and she would like to put on a class on the Rosslare expanse Access Control system We will talk about it at meeting night.

IDN Hoffman and Schlage are going to be having a SFIC core class next week in Addison, IL please contact IDN H.Hoffman there is a $65.00 per shop fee.

I Thing we have a guest speaker for tonight, I have been in contact by email a few times still waiting for a reply some-time it comes down to last day and hour.

If our guest speaker does not show up we will cover safe serving and lockouts.

Larry Hughes Vice President

*I am asking again if any members who happen to have any safes around there shop in need of being opened to bring there safes to our upcoming safe penetration class. We had planned to have our safe penetration class in June but we changed the month because of our GSA Sargent & Greenleaf class we will decide at the meeting
On day and time for this class.*
